AIM Holidays is not liable for any loss due to Passenger's gambling and is not responsible for any purchases made while on the trip.

AIM Holidays recommends that all Passengers be in good physical and mental health and have medical approval to travel. Any physical disabilities must be reported to at the time of reservation upon initial booking so AIM Holidays can contact the Suppliers to investigate amenities and/or special accommodations offered. Passenger is required to provide his or her own personal or individually prescribed devices such as wheelchairs, walkers, or similar devices. If more than minor assistance is needed, Suppliers may require that the Passenger be accompanied by a companion who is capable of, and responsible for, providing such assistance. Suppliers often reserve the right to reject Passengers whose mental or physical condition may interfere with the itinerary. Passenger(s) acknowledge and agree that AIM Holidays shall be held harmless for any and all claims relating to Supplier rejection relating to mental or physical condition.

While AIM Holidays prides itself on selecting top quality Suppliers, no undertaking, guarantee or warranty is given or shall be implied as to the fitness or condition of the Supplier's accommodations, transportation, or any food, drink, medicine, or provisions supplied. Force majeure (also covered in Cancellations clause):

AIM Holidays does not accept any liability of whatever nature for the acts, omissions, or default, whether negligent or otherwise, of companies/persons providing services in connection with your booking pursuant to a contract between them and yourselves and over whom we have no direct and exclusive control.

We do not accept liability in contract or in tort (actionable wrong) of any injury, damage, loss, delay, additional expenses or inconvenience caused directly or indirectly by force majeure or other events which are beyond our control or which are not preventable by reasonable diligence on our part including but not limited to war, civil disturbance, fire, floods, unusually severe weather, acts of God, acts of Government or of any other authorities, accidents to or failure of machinery or equipment or industrial action (whether or not involving our employees and even though such action may be settled by acceding to the demands of a labour group).

If travel restrictions are in place due to Covid-19 or any other such pandemic, we will try our utmost to get a refund from the supplier(s) of booked service(s). This though is at the total discretion of the service provider and they may not offer a refund, transfer the booking to the rescheduled date/following year, offer a partial refund/credit note after deducting an administration fee. If a refund is forthcoming, we will refund you in full the amount received into our account from our bank after deducting any bank charges and if applicable, after converting the payment into NZD using the exchange rate on the day and an administration fee charged by us. The supplier(s)/AIM Holidays reserves the right to not offer a refund under any circumstances

Prices

All prices quoted by AIM Holidays are per person and in New Zealand dollars (unless otherwise specified), inclusive of New Zealand GST where applicable and are current at time of publication. Prices are inclusive of all applicable government taxes and charges, but they do not include any foreign taxes or other charges that may be subsequently imposed by third parties. Prices should be treated as a guide only and may vary due to changes in government taxes or other charges, or due to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates. Please check all prices and information with your AIM Holidays consultant.

Where currency exchange rate fluctuations occur or any other increases in the price of services provided which are beyond the control of AIM Holidays, then AIM Holidays reserves the right to adjust package prices accordingly, up to and including the day of departure of your itinerary, even though the balance of payment may have been made. Acceptance of this arrangement is a condition of booking.

AIM Holidays is a travel wholesaler and is not a primary ticket agent. AIM Holidays advertised ticket and package prices include the base supply cost of the products and all fees charged to and by AIM Holidays to supply those packages and Show/Event/Sport tickets. All prices are inclusive of GST. All prices are subject to change upon any changes of such taxes.

In the case of bookings with an Event ticket any amount above the face value printed on tickets reflects additional costs such as fees charged to us for securing seats and pre-sale access amongst other things. Such amounts vary from time to time based on market factors relating to the particular event and date(s) on offer.

For certain events, tickets are sourced and bought from specialised ticket agents that act in the secondary ticket market place. Prices of tickets sold by such agents in this market more often than not will be higher than the price printed on the ticket. Ticket prices in this market are determined by popularity of the event and demand and supply.

We will always do our utmost to supply you with a choice of tickets and at all times you will be supplied with all relevant details and prices so that you can make an informed decision prior to making a booking.

Payment

All payments including deposits, stage payments and balance payments are non-refundable.

In the unlikely event that the event is cancelled outside our control we will endeavour to secure refunds from our suppliers however this cannot be guaranteed. If such refund is forthcoming, the supplier or AIM Holidays reserves the right to issue a credit note. Also see our force majeure clause below.

We highly recommend that you purchase an adequate independent travel insurance policy covering yourself and any other guests on your itinerary.

Force majeure cancellation:

If travel restrictions are in place due to Covid-19 or any other such pandemic, we will try our utmost to get a refund from the supplier(s) of booked service(s). This though is at the total discretion of the service provider and they may not offer a refund, transfer the booking to the rescheduled date/following year, offer a partial refund/credit note after deducting an administration fee. If a refund is forthcoming, we will refund you in full the amount received into our account from our bank after deducting any bank charges and if applicable, after converting the payment into NZD using the exchange rate on the day and an administration fee charged by us. The supplier(s)/AIM Holidays reserves the right to not offer a refund under any circumstances

Cancellation by third party:

Events may be cancelled or postponed by the promoter, team, performer, venue or Government for a variety of reasons, usually unknown or unpredictable. In this event we will not be responsible for any such cancellations or postponements and our force majeure provisions will apply.

In the case that the event is rescheduled the venue or promoter may set independent refund terms and conditions. Under such circumstances we will provide you with the opportunity to either retain your booking or voluntarily cancel it according to these terms and conditions.

Charges imposed by our suppliers:

If you need to change any accommodation you have booked, we will do our best to help. Where permitted by our suppliers, changes to accommodation can sometimes be made for an amendment fee, although changes close to your arrival date may not be possible. Please note, in some cases we negotiate special offer rates with our accommodation providers, and such rates may not allow changes to accommodation once booked – any such changes will incur up to 100% charges.
